Editorial Review

Review

Opposing Europe? is certainly a must for for students of Eurosceptism East and West, as well as for those interested in European party systems or in how European integration plays 'on the ground' in the EU member states. Christina Chiva, Parliamentary Affairs The books are well written and the high degree of comparability, along with the common pattern of the chapters, makes them an extremely flexible tool ... they represent necessary reading for all those eager to develop a clearer and systematic understanding of today's party-based Euroscepticism. Stefano Braghiroli, Political Studies Review
