Editorial Review

Review

"Warhol fever is well and truly back. His endlessly compelling portraits of Jackie, Marilyn Joan et al have been collected - along with many of the lesser known faces that made up his world - in Andy Warhol Portraits and they are as fresh as the first time you saw them."-Sunday Telegraph "Hurrah for yet another great book on our wig wearing disco dancing Andy Warhol."-Ten + "An eye-opening collection."-Daily Express "By gathering 300 of his portraits together for the first time, this volume proves that legacy of Warhol's works is far from superficial. His acid-bright portraits are, and will remain, the portrait of his age."-The Independent "This is one book to be judged by its glamorous, classy cover."-The American "Fascinating."-Digital Photographer "A fascinating visual anthology."-The Sunday Business Post "This tome of Warhol faces both famous and anonymous deserves a prime spot on any art lover's coffee table."-GOTHAM "An important contribution to academic library 20th Century American Art History reference collections, Andy Warhol Portraits is a 'must' for the personal collections of Warhol's legions of admirers."-The Midwest Book Review "Each carefully constructed, color saturated image is its own Warhol masterpiece, but together they become something even greater: iconic."-NYLON
