Why is There a Man and He's Not Mine? By Orpah Omega Lee C. Marasigan

"Why aren't you married yet?" Only a single woman would know the deep pain this question evokes in her heart. When it makes her feel that something's wrong with her or when it pressures her to thinking that she might not have tried hard enough to get married, this question pushes her deeper into loneliness, anger and even depression . "Why is There a Man and He's not Mine?" is one of the many real and authentic questions author Orpah Omega Lee asks in her book. She courageously shares her journey as a single woman in a married couple's world. She has found that, like her, many singles struggle with: the pain of waiting; Living with a wounded heart; temptations of illicit love, dealing with jerks; the perils of e-dating; and how to treat special occasions like Christmas, Valentine's days and weddings. Orpah Omega Lee walks with singles as their companion, offering hope, wisdom and practical advice to help them navigate their way through the challenges posed by the single life. She joyously share how her life has been exciting, colorful and fun!
